New York, New York: The Burton Awards, a national 501(c)(3) non-profit program, which is run in association with the Library of Congress, presented by lead sponsor Law360, and co-sponsored by the American Bar Association released its list of general counsel who will be named as Legends in Law. This year the Program will be held on June 14, 2021 at the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.

Tom Sager, Partner at Ballard Spahr; Les Parrette, Deputy Chairman, Burton Awards and Yabo Lin, Partner, Sidley Austin LLP, who co-chair the Legends in Law Committee stated that “all the winners passed the strictest scrutiny. The general counsel were evaluated based on: an outstanding reputation in the legal profession and a demonstrated track record of addressing complex matters of national or global significance in a specialized area. The honorees have also evidenced leadership, creativity and a uniqueness in approach to resolving challenges confronting their corporate clients. Finally, they are highly respected by the bench and bar for their integrity and professionalism.” Lisa Rickard, Former President of the U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform and the sponsor of the Legends in Law event said, “The general counsel that are selected are truly exemplary. They moved the bar even higher because of their stellar records of accomplishments.”

After the Awards Program a Gala will be held, including a Reception with an orchestra. After dinner there will be a performance by singer, songwriter, actor and author, Sara Bareilles, and world-class entertainer and mentalist, Oz Pearlman.

The Burton Awards Program is held in association with the Library of Congress, presented by lead sponsor Law360, and co-sponsored by the American Bar Association.
